COMMENTS: Provide the following information to describe how the materials are essential to student learning:

1. *Direct support of content standards and performance indicators
This book supports students' learning and comprehension related to key ideas and details, craft and structure and integration of knowledge and ideas.
2. *Authenticity of the material
This story, about a girl who loves doing fun things with her uncle and is worried she'll lose quality time with him when he gets married, is relatable.
3. *Impact on instructional time
The book can be used as a supplemental text to the existing curriculum for whole class read aloud, guided reading, small group instruction, independent reading.
4. *Clarity or ease of understanding
The book uses simple and straight forward language matched by engaging illustrations which make it easily accessible for students.
5. *Provide information about content, strengths/weaknesses, areas of concern (restrictions) and cultural relevance (culture, religion, ethnicity, region, country, author, characters, gender)
Strength--The way the child articulates her needs and worries is a great model for students.
